

THE SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,

Containing the freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestick.

MONDAY, January 23d, 1744. [Numb. 513]

CHARLES-TOWN, Jan. 23.

To His Excellency JAMES GLEN, Esq; Captain-General, Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over His Majesty's Province of South-Carolina; and Vice-Admiral of the same.

The humble ADDRESS of the Chief-Justice, Assistant Judges, Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty, and other Officers and Ministers of the Courts of Justice,

May it please your Excellency.

WE humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Excellency on your safe Arrival, and with the Rest of the Inhabitants of the Province, in the most Loyal and Dutiful Manner, acknowledge his Majesty's many Royal Benefits daily bestowed upon us with so bountiful a Hand; for our general Defence against Foreign Enemies: But as Members of the Law, we cannot forbear, with Joy, further to express our particular Happiness, and grateful Sense, of His Majesty's Wisdom and Paternal Care, in the Appointment of a GOVERNOR so well skilled in the Constitution of his Country; and who has made the Civil Rights of the Subject his peculiar Study.

These Qualifications, SIR, joined to sound Judgment and Polite Literature, in a Gentleman otherwise so perfectly well accomplish'd; cannot fail to have a proper Influence on the Minds of the People under your Excellency's Care; and must naturally tend to inculcate the Three great Precepts of Law; Honore deum, Alterum non ledere, summum equum tribuere; and consequently render your Administration agreeable and happy; Which with great Sincerity, we beg Leave to assure Your Excellency we heartily wish; and to effect it, shall always be ready to contribute every Thing in our Power.

To which Address, his Excellency made the following Answer.

Gentlemen, I have read with much Satisfaction, your respectful Address, so full of Expressions of Duty and Gratitude to his Majesty, and I am extremely obliged to you for the kind and affectionate Manner in which you make mention of me, it shall be my Study to deserve the Continuance of the favourable Sentiments you seem to have conceived of me, and I shall ever esteem it a Happiness to have the Approbation of so wise and judicious a Society: I will indeed endeavour to gain the Good-will of all Men, but this is exceeding difficult, and since I speak to so learned a Body, I may make Use of a Latin Expression, Ne Jupiter quidem omnibus placet!

The Law, in all civiliz'd Societies, has been held in high Estimation, it has been always reckoned an honourable and necessary Employment, for my own part I consider it as the very Bond and Cement of Society; you may assure yourselves therefore of my Countenance, Protection, and Friendship.

It gives me great Pleasure to find at the Head of the Law in this Province, and at the Head of you Gentlemen who do me this Honour, a Gentleman who when in a private Station was the Ornament of the Barr, and now that he is in a more exalted one reflects equal Lustre upon the Bench, a Station, the more honourable for him, as it was not procured for him by the Power of any particular Patron at Court, it was not conferred on him by any Governor, but was given by His Majesty to comply with the universal Voice and unanimous Suffrage of a whole Province, his Conduct since confirms the Choice, for as I am credibly informed, he has behaved with Justice, Integrity, and Impartiality. I hope Sir, that you will still pursue the same Track, and that you and all the Judges of this Province, as well as I myself, will consider that though the King's Commission may give us Power, it is our own Behaviour alone that can cloath us with Authority.

LONDON, Sept 15.

Letters from Smyrna of the 23d of July, advise, that the Cancellier, or Register, belonging to the Levant Company at the said Port, returned thither the 21st of the said Month, having been some time before taken by Capt. Andrea, and made his Escape eleven Days before from Canca, and Reports, That the said Privateer went from thence to the Coast of Barbary, being afraid to remain longer in those Seas, there being six Caravallecs, or Turkish Frigates, and an English Man of War continually cruising after him; by the former she has been chased several times, by the latter once, but being a prime Sailor always got clear. It is believed he cannot last long, for the Man of War will follow him wherever he goes. Two Maltese Men of War are likewise seeking after him.

Yesterday 300 Ton of Cais were sent from the Victualling-Office to the Tower, to be fill'd with Water for the Service of several Men of War at the Nore and Spithead, order'd on a Cruise.

According to the last Letters from Naples, it appears that Court has formed a new Design of troubling the Peloponnesus; a Body of 8000 Men having been assembled in the Neighbourhood of Capua, which, in all Probability, are intended to join the Army of the Duke of Modena, as soon as it shall be known that the Infant Don Philip has forced a Passage into Piedmont.

Sept 17 The Troops encamped in the Neighbourhood of Copenhagen, and which are indubitably intended to make a Descent upon Schonen (while another Prince perhaps invades Pomerania) are 25,000 strong.

Vast Magazines of Provision, and Forage, are filling for the Use of the Army of the Allies: And, from the Disposition of these it seems to be a Point out of Dispute, that the true Design of his Britannick Majesty is to march into Alsace.

The last Advices from Vienna say, that they continue to form a considerable Army in Moravia, in order to observe the Motions of an ambitious Neighbour.

Sept. 20 This Day their Excellencies the Lords Justices ratified a Treaty lately made between his Majesty, the Queen of Hungary, and the King of Sardinia.

By the Dutch Mail this Day, we have Advice of the Death of Baron Tzerck a General of Hossers in the Queen of Hungary's Service, who was shot through the Head by a Musket shot; his Death is much regretted on Account of the many gallant and signal Services done to that Princess.

His Prussian Majesty has certainly visited the Imperial Army, and it is thought will go and examine the Strength of the Allies before he returns to Berlin.

They write from Gibraltar of the 29th of July, that a small Dutch Man of War coming coming into the Gut that Morning, was attacked by several Spanish Xebecs and Barcolongoes, who took her for a Merchant Ship, but Mynheer soon convinced them of their Error, and obliged them to retire with considerable Loss to Tarriffa, to which Place they all belong'd.

Sept. 22. It is reported that the Queen of Hungary has declared she will Cloath her Troops in the Manufacture of Great-Britain.

By Letters from Malaga we are informed, that the King of Spain has issued Orders for calling in all the Privateers to whom he had granted Commissions, that are in Europe. — The Reason given for this Order is, to prevent their boarding Ships which may be infected with the Plague, and by that Means communicate it to some of the Ports of Spain.

We have Advice from Naples of the 2d Sept. N.S. that from the 2d to the 15th of August there were 215 Persons dead, out of 300, that were sick in the Lazaretto at Reggio; and that the Government had order'd two Lines across the Calabrian State, to prevent any Communication; and had also forbid any Fairs to be held.

Sept. 27. Letters from Rome say, that the Pope being desirous that that City should be a Pattern not only to all Italy, but the whole Christian World, and not knowing how far these two Scourges, War and Pestilence, may spread, his Holiness has already ordered that there shall be no Carneval next Year in the Dominions of the Holy See, and that Masquerades, Operas, Plays and Balls shall be banished from thence; to the End that the Almighty may be the more disposed to preserve them from the Sickness which rages in Sicily and Calabria, as well as to restore Union and Concord among Christian Princes, when he sees them humbling and mortifying themselves at a Season of the Year which used to be set apart for Pleasures and Diversions.

The Dutch are actually negotiating in several German Courts, in order to take fresh Troops into their Service, that they may be able not only to compleat their third Augmentation, but also to proceed to a fourth, more numerous than any of the former.

On Tuesday the 17th Instant arrived in this Port, the Snow George, Alexander Raitt Master, from Boston. The said Vessel had the Misfortune to lay ashore several Days, on the Shoals of Romain; and the Master acknowledges, that her Preservation is entirely owing to the speedy and extraordinary Assistance given him by Capt. Frankland of his Majesty's Ship Refe, and Capt. Henry Ward of his Majesty's Ship Tarter; as he has no Way of repaying the Favours of these worthy Gentlemen (they having refused any Present) he thinks it his Duty to express his Gratitude in this publick Manner. 'Tis to be observ'd that this is the first Vessel that has ever been got off after having been ashore on Cape Romain.

Immediately after the said Snow was got off, Capt. Frankland proceeded to his Station, and Capt. Ward into Rebellion-Road, in order to sail the first Opportunity on a Cruise.

And last Night about 10 o'Clock a Fire broke out in this Town, in the upper Rooms of a House upon the Pay, which (the Wind then blowing very hard at N.E.) would have prov'd of dreadful Consequence, had not his Excellency our Governor (who appear'd there one of the first) by his prudent Directions prevented it.
